

PATRICIA H. DAVIS
(PATTY) CARLBERG

Heaven welcomed another angel to sing praises to our Lord. Our beloved wife, mother and grandmother, Patricia H. Davis (Patty) Carlberg, after braving a long battle with congestive heart failure, was called home on Friday, April 7, 2006. Her husband and daughter were by her side.

A memorial service was held on Thursday, April 13, 2006 at the Alsip and Persons Funeral Chapel, Nampa.

Patricia was born Feb. 13, 1936, in Wheatland, Wyo., to Tracy and Helen Davis. She was the third of four children.

She met and married Don Carlberg on Feb. 15, 1956. Two children were welcomed into the family. Bob was born in 1958, and Ronda in 1960.

Patty was a beautician when she met Don, but was quickly talked into becoming a homemaker. She enjoyed many years at home with her kids, and she also lovingly cared for Don's parents.

In 1980, she went to work for Albertson's Sundries. She worked there for 11 years. Don and Patty retired in 1991, sold the house in Nampa, and moved to their cabin in Donnelly.

Don had her experiencing many adventures over the years including hunting, fishing, camping, jeeping, arrowhead hunting and motorcycle riding. She was a tough little nut and survived it all!

Patty also discovered that she was a very gifted painter. She painted numerous Thomas Kincaid type pictures that grace the walls of her daughter's home. Patty has always loved the Lord and was very dedicated to attending the Church of Christ in McCall.

She and Don had a very close relationship with their congregation and enjoyed their weekly Bible study group. Patty was a very sweet, kind and loving person and will be missed by many.

Patty leaves behind her husband of 50 years, Don of Donnelly; son Bob (Sue) of Caldwell; daughter Ronda (Gary) Yandle of Middleton; sister Sherry (Ken)

(See "Deaths," Page A-11)

Star News
4/21/06

Davis
Carlberg

Deaths

(Continued from Page A-10)

Grime of Nampa; six grandchildren, four great-grandchildren, and numerous nieces, nephews and cousins.

She was preceded in death by her parents, older brother Glendal Davis, and older sister Elma Tucker.

Due to their generous support of Don and Patty over the years, the family requests, in lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the Church of Christ, c/o Orval Roberson, Treasurer, 293 May Rd., McCall, ID 83638.

Rufus J. Cole

NAMPA – Rufus J. Cole, 90, died Jan. 10, 2006, at his daughter's home in Nampa.

Services were held at 1:30 p.m., Sunday, Jan. 15, 2006, in the New Meadows High School gym. Burial followed in the Meadows Valley Cemetery. There was a potluck at the New Meadows Senior Center following the burial.

Services were under the direction of the Heikkila Funeral Chapel, McCall.

Rufus was born Oct. 9, 1915, in English, Ind., the son of Rodney Ernest and Harriett Gott Cole. He was raised in Lakin, Kan., and attended school in Lakin and graduated from Moody Bible Institute in Chicago in 1949.

Cole served in the U.S. Army during World War II, in the medical corps of the 91st Infantry, in Italy, and was honored with a Bronze Star and good conduct medal.

On April 28, 1946, he married Anne B. Smatlak in Johnstown, Pa. He was an ordained missionary pastor since 1950. During his lifetime, he was not only an ordained minister, but also a farmer in Kansas, he worked in a sawmill, loved mechanics, built several churches, and worked with the Back Country Ministry in Idaho for 46 years.

He is survived by his wife Ann B. Cole; a brother Nolan Cole of Nampa; a sister Della Enslow of Lakin, KS; two daughters, Patty Moore of Riggins and Mary Jane Kurth of Nampa; six grandchildren, fourteen great-grandchildren and one great-great grandchild. He was preceded in death by his parents, two brothers and three sisters.

Memorials may be made to the Back Country Ministry Fund for future church work in Meadows Valley.

1-18-06 ADV.

New Meadows

BEATRICE (BEA) M.
DAVIS-LEAF

Business pioneer Beatrice (Bea) M. Davis-Leaf, 87, formerly of Clarkston, passed away Tuesday, July 25, 2006, in Ontario, Ore., of complications due to congestive heart failure.

A private graveside service was planned at the Finnish Cemetery near Lake Fork, southeast of McCall.

Bea was born Dec. 26, 1918, in Albion, Texas, to Arthur and Middie Reed.

She married Roy David Reep on Aug. 31, 1935, and had one daughter, Theresa (Terri), in 1936. They moved from Texas to Seattle in 1942, and she worked for Sears, Roebuck and Co., working her way up to the position of supervisor of the catalog order department.

She spent her evenings earning a degree in business administration at the University of Washington. In 1949, she was divorced from Mr. Reep. This same year, she was transferred to the Sears store in Spokane as manager of the telephone shopping service.

In Spokane she met William G. Davis. They were married on Oct. 3, 1950, about the time he was the direction of Summers Funeral Homes, Boise Chapel.

(See "Deaths," Page A-5)

11-29-06

MAN • IDAHOSTATESMAN.COM

Earl Lavern Driscoll, 33, Garden City, died Saturday in Cascade. Services will at at 2 p.m.

Thursday at Cascade Community Church. Burial will follow at Margaret Cemetery under the direction of the Heikkila Funeral Chapel, McCall.

ROSALIE A.
ELAM

Rosalie A. Elam, 81, of Boise, Donnelly and Las Vegas, died on Sunday, June 11, in Boise.

Graveside services were held Monday, June 19, 2006 at Dry Creek Cemetery in Boise.

COREY ENGEN

Corey Engen, 90, McCall's first Olympian and a co-founder of Brundage Mountain Ski Area, passed away peacefully on May 9, 2006, in Orem, Utah.

Graveside services will be held Saturday, May 13, at 11 a.m. in the Larkin Sunset Gardens Cemetery, 1950 E. 10600 So., Sandy, Utah.

The family will receive friends Friday from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. at the Larkin Sunset Gardens Mortuary, and Saturday from 10 a.m. to 10:45 a.m. prior to services.

Corey was born in Mjondalen, Norway, on March 30, 1916, to Trond and Martha Oen Engen.

He emigrated to the United States in March 1933 with his widowed mother. He married Norma Bleak in Salt Lake City on Sept. 10, 1938, and they were sealed in the Salt Lake City Latter-day Saints Temple on Oct. 3, 1956.

Corey, with his two brothers, Alf and Sverre, were pioneers in the ski industry in the intermountain west and the United States. He competed on the U.S. Olympic team in 1948, was elected to the National Ski Hall of Fame in 1973 and continued to actively compete until 1987 at age 71.

He also was elected to the Idaho Hall of Fame and was featured as one of 100 significant people in Idaho's history in a production made for the state's centennial in 1990.

He helped develop Brundage Mountain in the early 1960s with Warren Brown and J.R. Simplot.

His greatest joy in the sport was coaching and working with young skiers. Eleven national champions, including his own son, David, and several Olympians were produced from his local teams.

Corey loved his native Norway, but he was also very proud of his U.S. citizenship.

Corey and Norma lived for over 50 years in McCall, where he was president of the McCall Rotary Club in 1959, was a member of the McCall Memorial Hospital board, and served in the Boy Scout organization and the McCall Chamber of Commerce.

They moved to Lindon, Utah, in 1995, and lived there until Norma passed away in December 2002. Since May 2003, Corey has resided at the Courtyard at Jamestown in Provo.

Corey was an active member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and served in many positions. His last position was that of a faithful home teacher.

Corey's family was of the greatest importance to him. He and Norma were wonderful examples of love, integrity, kindness, hard work and generosity.

They had two children, Carol (Gary) Beus of Washington, Utah, and David Engen of McCall; eight grandchildren, Steven (Dena) Beus, Roger (Karen) Beus, Alan Beus (deceased), Brian (Caroline) Beus, Susan (Scott) Herbst, Richard Beus, Deborah (Daniel) Snyder and Erik (Melanie) Engen; and 15 great-grandchildren.

The family would like to thank Dr. Peter Duros and the staff at Orchard Park Care Center and Carl Lopez and his staff at Health Watch for their kind care. And a very special thanks to the wonderful staff at the Courtyard at Jamestown for making Corey's last few years so comfortable.

Condolences may be sent to www.larkinmortuary.com.

MILDRED KATHERINE FAIRBROTHER

Mildred Katherine Fairbrother, 77, went home to her Lord and Savior July 20, 2006 while recovering from a traumatic brain injury following a bicycle accident.

A memorial service was held at the First Presbyterian Church in Burley on Monday, July 24.

Mildred was born May 31, 1929 in Nampa.

She met her sweetheart, Guy Robert "Bob" Fairbrother, while working in McCall the summer of 1951. They were married on November 23, 1951.

They resided in Pullman, Wash., while Bob completed his veterinary studies. After his graduation they moved to Caldwell where they were blessed with the birth of twin girls.

A move to Burley in 1957 was followed by the birth of two sons. Mildred enjoyed quilting, scrapbooking and gardening.

Mildred also graduated from Idaho State University with a bachelor's degree in education.

She is survived by her husband and children, Connie Herbert of Hagerman, Carmen (Tim) Sidlaruk of Burley, Steve (Leslie) Fairbrother of Bellevue, and Robert (Suzie) Fairbrother of Jerome.

Mildred is also survived by seven grandchildren, Kristi (Shane) McKinnon, Brad Herbert, Brandon Fairbrother, Melissa Fairbrother, Nicholas Sidlaruk, Joshua Sidlaruk and Gene Fairbrother. Mildred was excitedly expecting the arrival of her first great grandchild.

Mildred and Bob spent the summers in McCall where they enjoyed canoeing on the area lakes. She was enjoying one of her many bike rides around this beautiful area when she suffered a traumatic brain injury which ultimately led to her passing.

The last weeks of her life she asked family repeatedly to take her home. The Lord listened and has taken her home.

Special thanks to the McCall Quick Response Unit and hospital and the St. Alphonsus Life Flight, nurses, staff and doctors.

Donations can be made in Mildred's name to the Brain Injury Association of Idaho, 500 W. Idaho, Boise, ID 83702.

CASCADE – Gene Frazier passed from this life on Tuesday, September 5, 2006, at Sunbridge Care Center in McCall. His best friends, Cindy and Barbara, were at his side holding his hands and singing to him.

Gene was born Sept. 13, 1937, in Kuna, Idaho. His parents were Wilbur “Bill” W. Frazier and Hazel Book Frazier.

Gene moved to Cascade with his family in 1943. He attended school in Cascade. He graduated in the class of 1955. He was very artistic and loved to draw cartoons. He did some drawings for the school paper.

Gene had various jobs in Cascade. He worked for the mill and other lumber jobs. He was a good mechanic when he wanted to be. He had some rough times in his life. He kept to himself unless he chose to let you near him.

His Aunt Eva remembers his great humor. He loved practical jokes and to try to scare his friends. When you talk to people that knew him, they always shared a funny story.

The last few years Gene had attended the Assembly of God Church with his lifelong friend, George Pattan. He also enjoyed attending the Cascade Community Church. The people were wonderful to him. Pastor Thibodeaux became a special friend to him.

Gene had many health problems the past two years. He got a chance to see people really did care for him.

He was known to some as “the man with all the cats.” People would drop cats off because they knew he would feed them. He is survived by the ones he had for years. Fluffy, Minnie, Mickey, Prada and Miss Molly (who was adopted this summer) will be traveling the U.S. in a motorhome.

Gene is survived by his brother, Robert “Bobby” Frazier and his wife, Patricia, of Washington state; nephew Brian Frazier of Washington; niece Rhonda, also of Washington; Aunt Eva Trullinger of Clovis, Calif.; Aunt Doris Butler of Hurricane, Utah; and Aunt Ruth Nelson of Boise.

Gene was preceded in death by his mother and father, and sister Judith Frazier; his maternal grandparents, Efton Lawrence Book and Rosa Davis Book of Kuna, Id.; paternal grandparents, William A. Frazier and Stella M. Frazier of Neb.; and Uncle Albert Book.

A memorial service was held Sunday, Sept. 17, 2006, at the Cascade Community Church.

David R. Gehrig

David R. Gehrig passed away Dec. 27 2006 from natural causes. He was born April 3, 1931 in Washougal, Wash. to John and Dorothy Gehrig. David served in the Army as a Motor Boat Operator for the Navy during the years of 1951-53. He married Evelyn Moore on Nov. 11, 1961 in Boise, Idaho.

They moved to McCall in 1963, where he worked for Chevron and later for the Boise Cascade Sawmill.

David will be remembered for the love of his family and his wonderful smile. He enjoyed collecting old bicycles, cars and bottles but most of all, he loved cutting wood.

David is survived by his wife Evelyn, four children; Janice McIntosh of Nampa, Donna (Justin) Howland Kimsey of Nevada Gail McDougal of Seattle and Rick (Carol) Moore of New Meadows; nine grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents, four brothers and two sisters. Services will be conducted 1 p.m. Saturday, December 30, 2006 at the Heikkila Funeral Chapel, McCall. Burial will be in the McCall Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Sterling Bank in McCall.

Maxine F. Hallett

Maxine F. Hallett, 75, of Council, passed away March 21, 2006 at a local hospital.

Cremation arrangements are under the direction of Thomason Crematory in Weiser. Interment at Council IOOF Cemetery will follow at a later date. Maxine was born Aug. 12, 1930 in Cascade, Idaho to Charles and Hazel Hall. She was the eighth of 13 children. The family lived in Cascade where she attended public schools until about 1944 when they moved to Emmett. They lived in Emmett for about 2 years before moving to Council. Maxine attended Council High School. She then met Charlie Hallett and they were married July 31, 1949. Maxine's daughter Evelyn was born in Jan. 1950. Her son Byron (Butch) was born in Nov. 1953 and her son Rick was born in Aug. 1965. Maxine worked as a waitress and a cook in Council for a number of years and she was also a homemaker. Charlie passed away May 11, 1978 and Maxine never remarried.

Maxine was a member of the Rebekkahs in Council. She enjoyed gardening and tending to her flower beds. She enjoyed watching the New York Yankees baseball team on TV and listening to the Boise State Bronco games on the radio. She had the biggest, kindest heart and was always helping out others in her community by cooking and caring for those in need. Granny Max will be greatly missed by all of her family and friends who loved her dearly. Maxine was preceded in death by her parents; her husband Charlie; her daughter Evelyn (Housley) Johnson and three brothers, Warren Hall, Kenneth Hall and Bob Hall.

She is survived by two sons, Byron (Butch and Darcie) Hallett and Rick Hallett both of Council; six grandchildren, Rhonda (Casey) Coltrin and Mike Housley both of Boise, Guy (Melodie Franklin) Hallett of Meridian, Skye Hallett of Boise and Charlie and Nicole Young and five great-grandchildren, Lucas Coltrin and Searra Ade of Boise, Brianna Coggins, Aidan and Ariel Brown of Meridian. She is also survived by four sisters, Charlotte Thornton of Garden City, Frances (Chuck) Ward, Georgia Jones both of Nampa, and Norma Tyson of Caldwell; five brothers, Forrest (Betty) Hall of Nampa, Leo (Pam) Hall of Boise, Ward (Betty) Hall of Riggins, Tom (Kathy) Hall of Kirkland, Wash. and Milton (Dot) Hall of Macon, Ga.; sisters in law, Shirley Wing of Boise and Eva Harden of Caldwell; brother in law, Delmar Hallett of Boise and numerous nieces and nephews.

Memorials can be made in Maxine's name to your favorite charity or ambulance fund.

CASCADE
- Alvin H. Hansen, Jr., 71, of Cascade passed away peacefully Aug. 2, 2006, at his home after a long battle with melanoma.

Memorial services were conducted at 3 p.m. Sunday, Aug. 6, 2006, at the American Legion Hall in Cascade under the direction of the Heikkila Funeral Chapel, McCall.

Alvin was born May 16, 1935, in Boise, Idaho. He graduated from Boise High School and Boise State University. He married Jean in 1956 and they just celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary, July 21 of this year.

He retired from his position as Human Resource Director at St. Alphonsus Regional Medical center in 1987. He spent the next 20 years living in their cabin in Cascade, wintering in Arizona and traveling to Europe, travels that included an unforgettable visit to St. Petersburg, Russia.

He was an avid fisherman, hunter and ATV rider.

He is survived by his wife Jean; sons Erik and Andrew; grandchildren Conrad, Calvin Ross, Ellen and Molly; his brother Brent; his sister Sherill; his stepmother Beatah; and his beloved cat Gato. He was preceded in death by his parents and grandparents.

The family thanks the staff at MSTI, Boise and the McCall St. Lukes hospice team.

Memorials may be made to MSTI or another of your choice.

Josephine (Jo) Hanson

Jo Hanson died on Monday, January 2, 2006 at the hospital in Emmett, Idaho. She was born Angela Josephine Drnjevic on the family homestead at Carmen Creek, Salmon, Idaho on June 7, 1926. She was the youngest of seven children born to Catherine Cernick and Antone Drnjevic, descendants of Austria and Yugoslavia. Her father died before she was born and her mother when she was only 14. Her family called her, Molla - meaning "little one." She attended the old Four Mile School on the Lemhi River. Times were hard while she was growing up. Jo finally had to quit school to assist her family by getting a job. Working at an early age made Jo appreciate the little things in life and the value of a dollar for a hard and honest day's work.

Jo married Claude Benson on September 16, 1948 at Missoula, Montana. He was killed in a logging accident September of 1969. They lived in Cascade and Banks for years. Jo worked as a waitress at the local restaurants while Claude hauled logs in his truck.

On June 27, 1976, Jo married Dale Hanson at Elko, Nevada and moved to Horseshoe Bend. She truly considered his family - her family. They divorced in 1989.

She was always willing to lend a helping hand and never quit until the last dish was washed and put away. She enjoyed raising flowers and chickens.

Jo was preceded in death by her first husband, Claude, her parents, four brothers, and her sister. She is survived by her brother and his wife, Frank & Florence Drnjevic of Elliston, Montana and numerous nieces and nephews. She is also survived by her Hanson family Bill and Mary of Horseshoe Bend, Deb, Bruce, and Leola of Utah, Jon and Trudee of Emmett, and Jim of Horseshoe Bend along with their families.

Funeral services will be held Friday, January 6, 2006, at 2 p.m. at the Ladies Club Hall in Horseshoe Bend. Graveside services will be Saturday, January 7 at 10 a.m. at the cemetery in Salmon, Idaho. Services are under the direction of the Potter Funeral Chapel in Emmett.

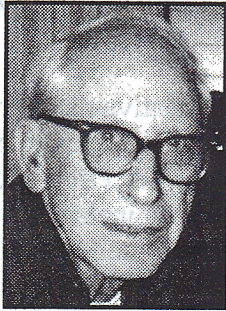

Memorials may be made to the American Legion Auxiliary Post 137, c/o Sarah Deen, 106 Mountain View Dr., Horseshoe Bend, ID 83629 or a charity of your choice.

Glen C. Heavrin

Glen C. Heavrin, 84, of Meridian, died peacefully at his home on Saturday April 15.

Glen was born on May 20, 1921 to Harry and Lavern Johnson

Heavrin on a farm near Caldwell. He grew up in Sweet and Ola attending one room county schools and High school in Emmett, Idaho.

Glen married Blanche Huskey in Grangeville, Idaho on Oct. 4, 1941. He joined the U.S. Army in January 1942 and was honorably discharged as a Sergeant 1st Class in 1945. Glen spend most of his working life in the lumber industry and he retired in 1986 from Ellingson Lumber Co. in Baker City, Ore. as a head sawyer. He moved home to Meridian to enjoy his grandchildren.

Glen is survived by his wife, Blanche, two daughters, Candy and (Harold) Hudson of Meridian, Cheri and (Doug) Youngblood of Boise, one son, Chuck and (Mary Ann) Heavrin of Cascade, seven grandchildren, Chip and Vickie Hudson of Nampa, Rock and Joli Hudson of Meridian, Kari and Kent Wilson of Boise, Jeremy and Angie Cowles of Meridian, Darrell Coles and Bobbie Lopp of Caldwell, Chris Heavrin Blakely and Megan Heavrin Blakely of Boise and nine great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents and brothers Carl, George, Frank, and Clinton and one sister, Alice. He was a member of the Orofino Masonic Lodge #69 since 1952 and also a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars for over 50 years.

Glen was a much loved husband, father and grandfather and will be missed dearly.

Graveside services with military honors will be held on Thursday April 20 at 11 a.m. at the Idaho State Veterans Cemetery, Boise. Visitation for family and friends will be held today from 4-8 p.m. at Accent Funeral Home 1303 N. Main Street, Meridian

222-5222

1s
ril il-
th e

-
-
e
,

e s n e d ia n g a g
d e id or sto re ia

ly ill

r-
ill
,
,
r t r

6-22-06

Funeral Chapel, McCall.

CLARA HERRICK

In the arms of the angels she was taken home. The legacy she left behind will continue on, for she instilled in each of us her love for flowers, feeding the birds and enjoying the outdoors. She was a loving mother and grandmother.

Clara Herrick, 97, of McCall, died Tuesday, June 13, 2006, in McCall.

A family gathering will be held this summer in honor of Clara's life. All of Clara's family cherish the memories and love shared.

She is survived by her three daughters, Edwina, Ruby and Mary Ann; and two sons, Laurens and Joe.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Edwin, and a son, Eddie.

Our family would like to express our thankfulness to all those who loved and cared for her

MARION BIGELOW
HIGGINS

Marion Bigelow Higgins, 112, formerly of Cascade, whose life spanned the terms of 20 of the 43 presidents of the United States, died Thursday, March 2, 2006, at her home at Leisure World in Seal Beach, Calif.

She was born June 26, 1893, in Williamsburg, N. Y., a village outside Buffalo. Higgins was raised first on a farm in Maine and then on farms in Ohio, Michigan and finally Idaho, where she graduated from high school.

After graduation she went to what is now the University of Puget Sound in Tacoma, Wash., she earned her bachelor's degree and a teaching credential there before taking a faculty job at a one-room schoolhouse in Cascade.

She was the oldest member of the Valley County Museum in Roseberry, which carries copies of her book, "Ripples on a Quiet Stream," which she wrote at age 102.